EASTERN RACING DATES.

Dates for the season's meetings on the Jockey Club racecourses and the officials to act at them were arranged last Friday at a meeting of the stewards, held in the afternoon at the office of the chairman, August Belmont, 23 Nassau street. Those who attended were August Belmont, F. R. Hitchcock, Andrew Miller and H. K. Knapp. The Jockey Club officials for 1903 were elected as follows: August Belmont, chairman; J. R. Keene, vice-chairman; F. K. Sturges, secretary and treasurer. The racing officials appointed were:

C. J. Fitzgerald, starter; C. McDowell, presiding judge; C. H. Pettingill, associate judge; H. G. Crickmore, clerk of the scales; W. H. Barretto, timer; J. L. Hall, paddock and patrol judge; W. S. Vosburgh, handicapper.

The allotment of dates brings in the new Metropolitan course at Jamaica, with a spring, summer and fall meeting, and has forced a shake-up of the Brighton dates into a summer and fall meeting. The Aqueduct course begins its meetings on the usual dates, but some days are knocked off both in the spring and fall. The Brighton summer dates are also curtailed, but as a set-off it gets two weeks in October. The Brooklyn, Westchester and Coney Island meetings will be on approximately the same dates as last year and include the same legal holidays, and the Saratoga meeting will take in the month of August on the corresponding days of last year. The racing schedule follows:

WASHINGTON JOCKEY CLUB.
Spring—Monday, March 23, to Tuesday, April 14.
Fall—Monday, November 16, to Saturday, December 5.

QUEENS COUNTY JOCKEY CLUB.
Spring—Wednesday, April 15, to Saturday, April 25.
Fall—Monday, October 26, to Friday, November 6.

Winner—B. g. by Artillery—Long Nannie (trained by E. C. Reynolds).
Went to post at 2:00. At post 1 minute. Start good. Won driving; second the same. Shogun went around the leaders at the turn into the homestretch and took command with a rush, but had to be hustled along at the end to stall off a challenge from Memphian. The latter was a strong contender throughout and at the end was gradually wearing the winner's lead down. Mauser tired when called on for a final effort. He saved much ground at the turn into the homestretch. Prince Herman weakened after going well for five furlongs. Kiwasa ran into prominence in the first half, but failed to stay.
Scratched—36724 Embarrassment, 105.
Overweights—In Bond, 1 pound; Prince Herman, 2½; Charlie Scoggan, 2.

Winner—Ch. h. by Glenelg—Keepsake, by Kosciusko (trained by W. H. Fizer).
Went to post at 2:31. At post 2 minutes. Start good. Won driving; second handily. Lord Neville cut the corner closely at the turn into the homestretch and beat Maltster to the path, but was under a hard drive in the last furlong to stall off the latter. Maltster was probably best. Gannon kept him on the extreme outside to the last furlong post and then pulled off the path and finished on the inside of the winner where the going was bad. Zack Ford outgamed Ailyar when it came to the final drive. The latter showed a lot of early speed, but weakened in the run through the stretch.
Scratched—36810 Ed L., 109; 36132 Automaton, 109; 35854 H. S. Tobacco, 107; 25305 Velleda, 101.

Winner—Ch. f. by Mirthful—Response (trained by S. C. Hildreth).
Went to post at 3:01. At post 2 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second handily. Witfull went to the front when called on and came away without great effort in the last sixteenth. Potente was under restraint for the first half, and was then taken to the inside at the turn into the homestretch and out-gamed Honolulu in the deciding drive. The latter displayed much early speed, but was on the extreme outside for the entire trip. John A. Clarke is at a disadvantage on anything but a fast track.

Winner—B. c. by Longstreet—Honeymoon (trained by S. S. Bender).
Went to post at 3:31. At post 2 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second the same. Jack Demond gradually wore the leaders down while rounding the far turn and caught W. J. Deboe at the stretch head, shook him off in the stretch run and drew away without great effort at the end. W. J. Deboe tired when the pinch came. Jessie Jarboe was cut off a couple of times and had a rough trip in general. Telamon had no mishaps. He was off well and showed much early speed, but unexpectedly failed to stay when called on strongly in the last quarter.

Winner—B. c. by St. Gatten—Moderocio (trained by W. M. Rogers).
Went to post at 2:17. At post 3 minutes. Start fair. Won driving; second easily. Modicum was best and appears to be of the improving sort. Given a lucky start, he took the lead in the stretch and gamely stalled off Saintly's rush at the end. The latter, away poorly and interfered with, went around the field at the stretch turn and finished fast. Karabel drew clear of the others in the last sixteenth and was an easy third. Alaria ran well under rough treatment. Stella Perkins got away badly and showed early speed and then fell away. Seize, nearly left, raced into prominence in the first half and tired. Irma A. quit in the stretch, but went a fast half.

Scratched—37002 Malaspina, 111; 36853 Skip Me, 110; 36970 Tommy Knight, 99.

Winner—B. f. by Yo El Rey—Miss Gentry (trained by W. L. Stanfield).
Went to post at 2:45. At post 4 minutes. Start fair. Won driving; second the same. Annie Marie secured a lucky start and, with clear sailing, led throughout and scored a lucky victory. Samar was crowded early and compelled to go wide on the turn, but finished with a rush and was probably best today. Selected ran well and was lucky throughout. Planet, away badly and poorly ridden, is evidently another Morris good one, closed a great gap and finished like a whirlwind. Floriana Bell ran in improved form. Dr. Rowell was closing up at the end. Canonicus, nearly left and carried hopelessly wide, was eased up in the last furlong. He looks like a good one.

Overweights—Hoceo, 2 pounds.
Annie Marie, show, 4 to 5. Samar, show, 3 to 5. Selected, show, 6 to 5.

Winner—B. f. by Ben Strome—Stapella (trained by J. J. Marklein).
Went to post at 3:13. At post 2 minutes. Start fair. Won driving; second easily. Laura F. M. secured a lucky start, showed the most speed throughout and stood a long stretch drive gamely, winning with something left. Mexicana moved up like a flash on the stretch turn and was wearing the winner down at the end. Young Morello went unexpectedly well and is due when in the right company. Doreen got away slowly and improved her position throughout. Naulahka tired badly in the last quarter. Fort Wayne got away poorly and was raced into prominence when a furlong out and then eased up. Evander is strictly a mudlark.

Scratched—37002 Oscar Tolle, 115; 36955 Mission, 112; 35232 Escalante, 111; 36510 Bell Reed, 101; 37019 Stunts, 94.

Winner—B. g. by Cicero—Leap Year (trained by W. L. Appleby).
Went to post at 3:36. At post 1 minute. Start good. Won driving; second easily. Grafter was well ridden and reserved to the stretch, where he made good in impressive fashion and was best. Illoaho waited on the pacemaker hard held for six furlongs, taking the lead in the stretch and was only out-stayed by the winner after a long driving finish. Bill Massie was interfered with when Forest King fell at the start and his chances practically destroyed, but closed up a big gap. Ultruda failed to stay and Diderot tired right at the end after he had loomed up dangerously when a furlong out.

Scratched—37022 The Pride, 109; 37023 Hesper, 108; 36887 Nellie Forest, 105; 37007 Lena, 103; 36985 Bacchus, 102; 36985 Sleeping Child, 95.

Winner—B. g. by Star Ruby—Hinda Dwyer (trained by W. P. Fine).
Went to post at 3:58. At post 1 minute. Start straggling. Won handily; second driving. Barklyite moved up fast from a rearward position while on the backstretch and indulged the pacemaker to the stretch, where he drew to the front without much effort. Vohicer, away slowly, closed a big gap in the last half under a bad ride. Father Wentker got away in his stride and made most of this advantage, sustaining his speed unexpectedly well. Ned Dennis was shut off at the half and closed up fast in the last quarter. Fairbury ran well and is improving. Axminster was sore and lacked early speed. Dora I. went a fast five furlongs.

Barklyite, show, 6 to 5. Vohicer, show, 3 to 5. Father Wentker, show, 6 to 5. Axminster, show, 4 to 5.

Winner—Ch. h. by Midlothian—Starlight (trained by V. Gilbert).
Went to post at 4:20. At post 1 minute. Start good. Won driving; second the same. Lode Star was lucky on the first turn, stole a long and winning lead and after interfering with the contender on the stretch turn, came away fast and just lasted out. Searcher, lightly weighted and in spite of a ridiculously slow, early pace, laid far out of it under restraint and was unequal to outspitting the winner in the stretch. He came through next to the inner rail after an early effort to come on the outside, which Lode Star prevented and was easily the best. Artilla improved suddenly and finished out the last quarter with her usual burst of speed. El Rio Shannon tired in the stretch. Hermencia ran a bad race and seems to be in poor form.

Lode Star, show, 9 to 10. Searcher, show, 1 to 4. Artilla, show, 3 to 5. Hermencia, show, 9 to 20.

Title caught Maid of Hope tiring in the final eighth and came away from her without trouble. Maid of Hope showed speed and improvement. The others were never in the hunt.

GOSSIP OF THE TURF.

Every lover of a good horse will be glad to learn that Capt. S. S. Brown has a bright prospect of getting Hyphen to the Oakland races next year.

As a two-year-old, Hyphen was meritorious but unfortunate. He did not win a single stake of value, but it always took the very best horses of his age to beat him. His most signal triumph as a three-year-old last season was his victory in the Brighton Derby, in which he defeated Major Daingerfield, winning easily in good time. Whatever the records may show Hyphen's admirers always believed him to be a horse of high class and last season insisted that he was a better colt than Major Daingerfield. Justification of their faith was the running of the Brighton Derby, in which he defeated the Major so decisively. They now hope to find further proof of their confidence in Hyphen in the important events of next season for which their favorite has been nominated. Hyphen is a son of Himyar and it is rare to find the sons of Himyar showing a liking for a distance or ability to negotiate it, but Hyphen is an exception to the rule and undoubtedly is the best son of his sire that has been seen since the days of the much lamented Domino.—Evening Sun.

According to authentic figures the winnings of prominent turfmen in England and France during the season of 1902 make American winnings look small in comparison. In France M. de Saint-Alary's horses captured $160,888, as against $118,400 won by R. S. Siever in England and $93,350 captured by Green B. Morris in this country. The leading French owner also won $7,500 on the side, because he bred a number of his winners. In both his case and that of the Englishman their big winnings were due to three-year-old fillies, Kazil Kourgan and Sceptre.

Nine English owners won $50,000 or more, the late Colonel McCalmont following Mr. Siever with $90,575, Sir J. Blundell Maple being third with $89,560. W. C. Whitney stood sixteenth on the list with $27,800, a drop from $99,000 won by him in 1901.
Richard Croker won four races worth $8,925 and the Keenes three races not worth more than $3,000.
Eight owners in France won $50,000 or more, W. K.
Vanderbilt being included in the list.

John Bullman, the jockey who has experienced so many penalties for disorderly conduct at the post, embraced the opportunity of showing his independence when Starter Richard Dwyer recently succeeded J. J. Holtman at Ingleside. Bullman collected a purse among his fellow riders, purchased a diamond pin and personally presented it to Dwyer. Bullman frankly admits a dislike for Holtman and when the latter resumes work with the barrier more trouble is looked for.
